Description:

This course focuses on the criticism and philosophy of contemporary art. Its goal is to apprise students of the seminal texts constituting discourses and debates surrounding contemporary art. Each class will be devoted to succinct and focused readings -- essays or excerpts from books -- by the following thinkers: Clement Greenberg, Rosalind Krauss, Michael Fried, Dick Higgins, Jack Burnham, Claire Bishop, Walter Benjamin, Lucy Lippard, John Chandler, Douglas Crimp, and Boris Groys.

Requirements:

Students will be required to complete nightly reading assignments prior to class and make (number TBA) presentations of 15 minutes (followed by discussion) on an artist or group of artists related to the reading assignment. There will be a final take-home exam focusing on the class reading. Please arrive prepared to discuss the assigned readings Wednesday July 6.

Class Organization:

Class meetings consist of two primary components: vibrant discussion of the assigned texts based on close and careful readings and in-class presentations by students.

Assignments:

1.) Students are required to make (number TBA) 15-minute PowerPoint presentations over the summer term. The presentations should focus on one or more artists related to the evening's reading assignment. Given that discussion is encouraged during and after presentations, nightly presentations should last no more than 25 minutes per student. Students may use artists from the artist bank listed in conjunction with each night's reading assignment, or introduce other artists to the class. Percentage of grade: 40%.

2.) Due Monday August 8 Final Take-Home Examination: Students will be required to answer a series of essay questions pertaining to the class readings. Percentage of grade: 60%.
