Description:

This course is a survey of modern and postmodern architecture 1851 to the present. It focuses on the events and objects of architectural modernism and postmodernism unfolding around the evolution of industry, technology, and the socio-political realm.

Goals and Outcomes:

- Define and understand the terms modernity, modernization, modernism, and postmodernism
- Identify the salient characteristics of modern and postmodern architecture
- Gain knowledge of the history and theory of modern and postmodern architecture
- Improve public speaking skills
- Improve research skills
- Improve expository writing skills

Requirements:

Students are required to attend every class, complete all assignments (reading, writing, and exams), and participate with candor, verve, and commitment in class. Students are allowed one unexcused absence after which each absence will result in the lowering of the final grade by one full letter. Students with illnesses that require extended periods of absence are encouraged to officially withdraw from the class.

Textbook:

- Kenneth Frampton. Modern Architecture: A Critical History. New York: Thames & Hudson, 2007. Fourth Edition/World of Art.

Notebooks:

Students are required to keep a notebook that records attendance and the notes you have taken based on lectures, in-class discussions, and/or films. Each entry should be dated and titled. The title should come from the professor's lecture title and/or the syllabus. Students are encouraged to use bullet points and titles of works of architecture from presentations to organize notes. Notebooks must be neatly handwritten and bound in a notebook. The notebook may be spiral, three-ring, etc. Students submit notebooks for a grade at the midterm on Thursday March 14, 2019 and at the final exam on Thursday May 2.

Exams:

The mid-term exam is Thursday March 14 and the final exam is Thursday May 2. Each will require students to identify 20 slides and answer short essay questions. There will be a review sheet disseminated at least two weeks prior to each exam. All slide lectures are located at www.charissaterranova.com.

NOTE ON DATES: There are absolutely no make-up exams for people who miss the exam. I do not accept late notebooks.

Grades:

Notebooks	40%
Mid-Term Exam	30%
Final Exam	30%
TOTAL	100%

Classroom Behavior:

- No laptops or smart devices are allowed once the lecture has begun.
- Discussion is encouraged. Please raise your hand to ask questions or make comments.
